

SBH Career Division

379 Kings Highway
Brooklyn, NY 11223
1-718-787-1400

Summary

With the supervision and support of our exemplary staff and volunteer advisory team, the Albert J. Sutton and Sam N. Sutton Career Division stands as the premier job readiness and placement program for anyone seeking employment or looking to hire. We assist both employers and job seekers as they navigate the challenges of today's job market across all industries. The Career Division facilitates honest communication between employers and job seekers. All services are offered to those in the NY and NJ area. <https://www.sbhcareer.org/>

What does SBH offer?

- Career Coaching Program
 - Connects job seekers with successful businessmen and women who can provide support and guidance of their industry and area of expertise
- Training & Skills Development Program
 - Offer computer courses to help individuals stand out to potential employers, increase their earning potential and master skills essential in today's workplace.
 - Classes offered in the following topics:

Intro to Computers	Excel	Quickbooks
ECommerce	Microsoft Office	Intro to Coding

- Offers assistance from professional resume writers and interview coaches
- Job Placement
 - SBH connects hundreds of job seekers each year to our network of over 2000 employer
 - SBH places college-aged students in meaningful and educational internships at top companies across all industries